DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 9-32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Wells US 4,887,712.

Wells '712 teaches a beverage container (43), a part (27) which defines an aperture along a line of weakness (28), a pull ring (31) defining an elongate tongue (40), a shaped member (26) comprising a ramped surface which urges a part (36) the opening member to sealing contact with the aperture, as shown in figures 6 and 10. Examiner notes the element (36) is unlabeled in these figures, but, is shown in figure 2. Although it is not explicitly taught to be used for the purpose of riding a ramp surface on the container end wall to urge the pull tab into sealing contact, the referenced invention teaches all structural elements of the claimed invention, and therefore is capable of performing in the intended manner. It has been held that a recitation with respect to the manner in which a claimed apparatus is intended to be employed does not differentiate the claimed apparatus from a prior art apparatus satisfying the claimed structural limitations. Ex parte Masham, 2 USPQ2d 1647 (1987).

4. Claims 9-32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Wilson US 4,442,950.

Wilson '950 teaches a beverage container (C), a part (20) which defines an aperture along a line of weakness (28), a pull ring (12) defining an elongate tongue (52), a shaped member (the portion about rivet 14) comprising a ramped surface which urges a part (54, 56) the opening member to sealing contact with the aperture, as shown in figure 10. Although it is not explicitly taught to be used for the purpose of riding a ramp surface on the container end wall to urge the pull tab into sealing contact, the referenced invention teaches all structural elements of the claimed invention, and therefore is capable of performing in the intended manner. It has been held that a recitation with respect to the manner in which a claimed apparatus is intended to be employed does not differentiate the claimed apparatus from a prior art apparatus satisfying the claimed structural limitations. Ex parte Masham, 2 USPQ2d 1647 (1987).

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure: See attached PTO-892 citing relevant references.
